

A Bright Crimson Flower
Tuesday 8 September at the Glasshouse

A first for Hastings Choristers will be our involvement in this play, written by Tasmanian Richard Davey, which tells of the resourcefulness, humour and courage of Aussie POWs captured by the Japanese in WW2. This is a fundraiser for Legacy so we hope to see you there.

Do you love to sing?

Hastings Choristers always welcomes new members and with this exciting program ahead, now is a great time to join us. If you would like to share the joy of choral performance with like minded, dedicated singers, find out more by visiting our website www.midcoast.com.au/~choristers, emailing hcinc@westnet.com.au or phoning president Helen on 0432 232 054. Our next rehearsal is at 6.45 pm on Monday 27 July here at MacKillop Senior College.

Special Thanks

Hastings Choristers is most grateful for the continuing support of its Patrons, Paul and Mary McCarthy. We would like to thank Jenni Searson and MacKillop Senior College for all their work in accommodating this concert and Paul McCarthy Advertising for help with printing and publicity. To the conductors, singers and supporters of all the choirs here today - we know how much work is involved in making this music sound so professional - a big thank you for your valuable contribution to Choral Kaleidoscope 2009.
